

Connectivity

10 / 11

Hollow Man

1

Data saver mode prevents all apps from using mobile data.

☐ TRUE☒ FALSE

2

Which of these is a wired method of data transfer?

☒ USB-C to USB-C☐ Wi-Fi☐ Bluetooth☐ Mobile data

3

Which of these is the least secure network?

☒ Public☐ Private☐ Organization

4

Wi-Fi is a networking technology that connects two devices using radio waves to create a wireless local area network.

☒ TRUE

☐ FALSE

5

Casting lets users mirror their Android device to the TV, so they can view their apps, videos, photos and other media on the big screen.

☒ TRUE

☐ FALSE

6

Hotspots turn a smartphone into a router and broadcast Wi-Fi signals to other devices using mobile network data.

☒ TRUE

☐ FALSE

7

Android devices can be used as a hotspot for many types of devices to tether to.

☒ TRUE

☐ FALSE

8

Users have to turn on NFC if they want to use it.

☒ TRUE

☐ FALSE

9

Restarting a device often frees up memory and improves performance.

☒ TRUE

☐ FALSE

10

All carrier plans support hotspots.

☐ TRUE

☒ FALSE

11

What can users do to limit their mobile data usage?

Select 3 answers that apply.

☒ Set data limits

☒ Activate data saver mode

☒ Restrict background data use by apps

☐ Activate data roaming

SUBMIT